Happenings in Lent

Once again, Morning Prayer will be offered in the chapel at 6:30 a.m. Monday - Friday during Lent beginning March 7 and continuing through Good Friday. This quiet, brief (30 minutes) service is an excellent Lenten discipline and a great way to start the day. Come join us!

Lent Madness Begins March 6—See details in the Narthex

Sunday mornings in Lent - Father Bill will offer a “Not So Newcomer” class that will focus more specifically on 4 key elements of Christianity: Baptism, Bible, Eucharist and Prayer. Our consideration of these areas will be supplemented with discussion of Rob Bell’s NOOMA video. The Class is open to everyone. Sundays 9:05 – 10:00 a.m. in Rm 207. We will meet March 10, 17, 24 and April 7.

Observe Lent with our monthly Taizé Service. Join us on March 10 when we will meet together to pray and meditate through repetitive song, extended silence, spoken and silent prayer, and encouraging words from scripture and religious writers. The service is at 6:30 p.m. in the chapel for 45 minutes.

Stations of the Cross will be offered in the Sanctuary on Wednesdays at 5:45p.m., March 13, 20, 27. April 3, 10.

Wednesday Series in March -Our March offering will be a book study and discussion of the The Gifts of Imperfection by Brené Brown. The subtitle of the book is Let Go of Who You Think You’re Supposed to Be and Embrace Who You Are, Your Guide to a Whole-hearted Life. This important work is research based and very well grounded. Check Dr. Brown out on the internet. This will be an inspiring and informative book to discuss. You will need to purchase a book for the class. All are invited. Bring a friend or neighbor. We will meet March 13, 20 and 27 and April 3 and 10. The class will be held in the Brinsden Rm from 7:15 to 8:30 p.m.

Feeding and Fine Arts Service Day with Christ the King Atascocita on March 23 from 10 a.m.-3 p.m.. This is a family event where we will serve at the Houston Food Bank and then go to the Museum of Fine Arts.
